

Mini Presentations

Level:	Elementary/Pre-intermediate
Type:	General English
Skills practised:	Speaking, listening (writing: preparation for presentation)
Language/Systems:	Presentation language (provided on course website to help prepare).
Material:	n.cards (overview, presentation language)
Tools:	n.card displayer, picture board(s)/party equipment, framed certificates
Location/LMs:	conference room or garden; garden for party (decorated in advance, if possible with the help of the students).

Summary: Students will give their presentations as a follow-up of the two previous lessons. If time permits, we will play a word game (alphabet game). Garden party with official graduation certificate handover.

	STAGE & ACTIVITY
10 m	Welcome back! ---> Sound Check <--- Lesson overview (n.card displayer): 1. Mini presentations 2. A word game (if time) 3. Graduation garden party
35 m flex	Prepare presentation screen or pictures boards in advance and check that students have proper rights to use them (alternatively, go to a place where students can rez objects but where it is also quiet enough). Quick review of presentation language (show n.card). Elicit from students: Tips for presentators / Dos and Don'ts Students give their presentation. Peer and teacher feedback (take notes, tell peers to be prepared to us questions).
10 m >	Play alphabet game: Students stay in a circle (teacher can participate). The person whose turn it is "counts" from A-Z. The others say stop. They take turns to say words starting with that letter. The one who cannot come up with a word is out. The last remaining person (not counting the teacher) is the winner. Note: To make it more difficult, a certain word category (noun, verb, adj) or a topic can be chosen.
5 m	(Bonus) Homework (optional): Those students who want, can prepare a voicethread/slideshare presentation with pictures, sound and/or text and they can comment on their classmates' presentation.
30 m >	Garden party with class, teacher, friends, guest speakers and sim owner(s). Official ceremony where the certificates are handed to the regular students. Inofficial party, chat.